

High School

Home Connection

Values

Dear _____,

Today in class, we learned that Values are the ideas or beliefs that matter most to us in life. We listed three things that meant the most to us and then created a coat of arms.

Please encourage your student to share their coat of arms with family members and explain how it represents their values.

Please do not hesitate to reach out with any questions or concerns.

Best,
