

High School

Home Connection

Visualization

Dear _____,

Today in class, we learned that visualization means creating a detailed picture of something in your mind.

Please encourage your student to share their visualization drawings with family members. Sharing goals with others is another way to help you achieve success.

Please do not hesitate to reach out with any questions or concerns.

Best,
